Online Columnist Application | Summer 2015

THE HOYA's Sports section is looking for sports columnists for the summer who write on their own sports-related theme. The columns are not restricted to discussing Georgetown athletics or collegiate athletics. A columnist should have a specific plan for his or her column and must follow that plan for the entirety of the summer. Columns can range in style and in topic, but a columnist should be able to both entertain and enlighten readers while sharing his or her own original opinion.

Columnists are responsible for writing one column every two weeks, and it is critical that applicants be able to commit to writing at this uninterrupted frequency.

The deadline for columnist applications is Thursday, May 21st at 11:59 p.m.

Please submit all materials to Tyler Park, Sports Editor, at sports@thehoya.com.

Application Elements

Sample Columns

Please attach one sample column that represents the theme of the column you hope to write throughout the semester. The column should be between 400 and 600 words in length. The column may function as the first one that will run, so keep in mind that it may be published. Also give your column a tentative title.

Cover Letter

Please include a short cover letter of no more than 500 words that describes any other time commitments that you may have during the summer and how often you plan on writing. Please also include at least three additional column topics. The cover letter should also include your name, school and year.
